To be on the safe side and put my mind at ease I got retested at my doctor’s office and the results came back negative.

It worked to lower his blood sugar back to the normal range, but at a cost of five extra pounds the first few months he's been on it.

Words at all the wonderful experience and incredible folks the sport has brought me into contact with.

Unfortunately, his loyalty to his infallible bosses means that whatever he attempts to do to solve that problem will only make it worse.
