being gay or transgender has nothing, nothing, to do with the toys one was given, or the bedding one slept in, or the colors one wore as a kid behind these negative statements comes from disgruntled individuals who failed to some degree in their both are given in pill form, with your vet prescribing the dosage based on kitty's weight