open and frank discussions with the patient and family about treatment will help them understand the severity of the condition and its expected outcome.

Triple Action Brightening Polishing Machines